Eid al-Adha (June 17)

Eid al-Adha is the Muslim holy day that honors the sacrifice Ibrahim (Abraham) was willing to make in obedience to God's command. Muslims now celebrate this event by sharing a slaughtered animal in three parts: one part for themselves, one for their family, and the third part is given to the needy.

Autistic Pride Day (June 18)

A day to raise awareness and celebrate the similarities and the uniqueness of people with autism.

World Refugees Day (June 20)

An international day to honour refugees around the globe and celebrates the strength and courage of people who have been forced to flee their home country to escape conflict or persecution.

National Indigenous Peoples' Day (June 21)

A day to recognize the history, heritage and diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples in Canada.
